GENERAL INFORMATION:

Ikirwa Pre and Primary School was first established in 2013 January in Midawe village Arumeru District. It is first growing school. We provide Tanzanian children with a Tanzanian curriculum as provided by the ministry of Education.

English is the medium of learning and communication. We also accept children from other countries, such as Kenya and Uganda who are nearby. We aim to nurture to their potential. We place great emphasis on character building and the inoculation of values, which will stand our pupils in good stead in adult life. They are groomed to be independent life – long learner's, as well as being resourceful, confident and creative.

The school operates from Monday to Friday. (Weekends for special programs)

The academic year starts January and ends November. The academic year has three terms.
